FROM ROCK STAR TO ROCK BOTTOM TO ROCK SOLID

I lost it all in 2010. What a year! Perhaps you have read my blog post [The Perfect Storm] wherein I describe my TRIPLE WHAMMY of being run over by a truck with the financial markets meltdown of 2008, hit by a train with a huge love loss, and promptly upon dusting myself off, having the figurative nuclear bomb go off with my daughter being diagnosed with cancer (p.s. she now scans clean after surgeries and treatment).

Since founding my first company at age 19, I have bought and sold 16 companies and ventures and negotiated hundreds of million-dollar+ deals. My professional career has included teen-preneur, small business owner, commercial real estate developer, investor and philanthropist. I am now regarded as an authority on financing, investing, negotiating, and business strategies.

My speaking, coaching and business advisory career began as a result of being called upon to mentor individuals and businesses in the success principles that I used in my companies and throughout my adult life to live a thriving, highly-successful, personal and professional life. For nearly two decades I have been coaching and training entrepreneurs, small business owners, mid-cap companies and large organizations in my many modalities, techniques and systems for success affecting lasting transformational change in themselves and their business. My goal when I give a keynote or lead a workshop or training is to have those in attendance leave saying, "Oh my god that was the best thing I've ever attended. I got such value out of that. I'm going to tell all my friends and colleagues to go see Tom."

It was Ben Franklin who said, "Tell me and I forget, teach me and I may remember, involve me and I learn."

As a champion of transformational living and business practices, I integrate specific methodologies and results-oriented activities into my presentations to help my audiences take on greater challenges and produce breakthrough results. Popular keynotes and workshops include: [Build Your Dream Business], [Success Principles for the New Normal] and [Create The Life You Want].

Author of the book Getting From Here To There, I will truly help you or your company get from Where You Are to Where You Want To Be.
